THE MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good Morning Hudson's Bay

Today is Thursday, Feb. 8, 2018

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance

In 1992, Dr. Mae Jemison became the first African American woman to go into space aboard the space shuttle Endeavor. During her 8-day mission she worked with U.S. and Japanese researchers, and was a co-investigator on a bone cell experiment. ASL Club is selling Handigrams before school from 7 to 7:23 every morning until Valentine's Day, Feb. 14. We will deliver to the first period class of the person you would like to purchase one for. Cost is $1 for Handigram, a piece of candy and delivery. Or $3 for the above, and a beaded bracelet. Your support is appreciated. Money goes to support our Skills-USA ASL Club lodging expenses in Yakima for state competition.

CAREER CENTER

Are you smart and hard-working? Do you need a job? A law firm located at 1915 Washington St. is looking for a student to work as a filing clerk for approximately 6 hours a week, earning $11.50 per hour! Check the website or stop by the Career Center for more information.

Are you interested in a healthcare career? Kaiser has a Youth Exploration Academy available this summer. Participating students will receive $800, get the inside scoop on scholarships / internships and get the opportunity to experience Kaiser's simulation lab and simulations in their operating rooms. Applications are due this Friday so stop by the Career Center today if you need any help.

SENIORS! The Washington State Opportunity Scholarship will expire on Feb. 28! If you plan to seek a career in the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, Math or Health Care, this is a lot of money for minimal effort. Stop by the Career Center today and we will help you get started!

Senior grad party tickets go on sale today in the Commons during both lunches. If you have purchased a ticket, you can also sign-up for the bus you'd like to ride.

Everyone deserves to have a safe and healthy relationship. A healthy relationship has trust, open communication and respect. If you want to check in on the health of your relationship, visit loveisrespect.org or text "love" to 22522.

SPORTS

Hudson's Bay Varsity Basketball Girls made a great effort last night in the playoffs, but eventually lost to Wilson, 65-47. Kamelai Powell had 19 points and 10 rebounds. Jaydia Martin also had a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Bay will play Evergreen on Friday in an elimination game.

The Hudson's Bay boys and girls' tennis teams are hosting open courts Monday through Friday, starting at 2:30, when it is sunny out and the courts are dry. If you have questions contact me, Avery Honaker.
