

THE MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good Morning Hudson's Bay

Today is Wednesday, June 7, 2017

Spring Sports Athletes. Spring Sports Awards will take place tonight at 6 p.m. in the Commons. Please make the effort to end your season with your teammates looking back on our successful spring season together. Go Eagles!

Seniors will check in their iPads on Thursday, June 8, through their Senior English class. Things to remember:

1. Please have it fully charged.
2. Back-up any data that you want to keep as it will be wiped to hand out to incoming freshman next year.
3. Brick and cord must be returned at the same time.

Yearbooks are now available for pick-up by Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors during Tutorial and lunch at the concession stand across from the gym. Be sure to bring your ID and your receipt if you have it.

Students- FFA will conduct officer elections for 2017-2018 very soon. Would you like to have a leading role in your schools FFA next year? Then sign up for the 2017-2018 officer positions. Sign up will be today, June 7, through Friday, June 9. You may sign up with Carpenter in room 409 during school. Six offices are available and we would like to increase our membership so even if you are not currently in FFA, stop by or talk to a current member to learn about FFA. We will meet on Friday, June 16, during Tutorial and lunch in room 409 to cast ballots, tally results, and announce next year's officers.

The Final National Honor Society meeting will be today, June 7, in room 322 during Tutorial. All NHS members need to attend and turn in their hour sheets. We will also discuss leadership opportunities within NHS for the 2017-18 school year.
